

MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

While barracking for your Club is a vital part of the game and robust views are encouraged, the Club is committed to fostering a safe, family-friendly and inclusive environment, and has zero tolerance for offensive, aggressive, discriminatory and/or vilifying conduct.

Accordingly, all members or prospective members of the Club agree that when attending matches, activities or events and/or interacting (including via the internet and social media) with other members and supporters (including opposition supporters), Club personnel and partners, officials, and venue personnel they must:

- conduct themselves in a lawful and respectful manner;
- refrain from threatening, disruptive or offensive conduct (including obscene language and intimidating or crude gestures), intoxication, abuse, and vilification based on religion, sexuality, disability, age, gender, political preference, ethnicity or race;
- refrain from encouraging any other person to conduct themselves in a manner that would constitute a breach of this Member Code of Conduct;
- comply with terms of entry and all stadium / venue rules; and
- not engage in any conduct that may bring the Club or the game of Australian rules football into disrepute or adverse publicity.

The Club appreciates your support and encourages you to report any breaches of this Member Code of Conduct by email to legalnotices@gwsgiants.com.au.

Last Updated: [date]